

National Home Offering Special Convention Trip

Eaton Rapids, Mich. – The 2010 VFW and Ladies Auxiliary National Convention in Indianapolis, Indiana presents a unique opportunity for attendees to visit the VFW National Home for Children. The National Home is offering a one day bus trip from the convention to its beautiful campus in Eaton Rapids, Michigan.

A luxury motor coach will leave the Indianapolis Convention Center on Wednesday, August 25 at 7:00 a.m. and arrive at the National Home around 11:30 a.m. While at the Home for three hours, guests may take a guided or walking tour, visit the museum and eat lunch. Departure from the Home will be at 2:30 p.m. returning to the Indianapolis Convention Center around 7:00 p.m.

“In 1992, when our national convention was last held in Indianapolis, I took the bus trip to the National Home. That’s when I fell in love with the Home,” said National President Jan Tittle.

The cost of this special trip is $50, which includes transportation, lunch on campus and a National Home gift bag.

For reservations, call (866) 483-9642 or visit www.vfwnationalhome.org/bustrip. Seating is limited. Reservations must be made by July 30, 2010.

As thousands of previous visitors will attest, a visit to the VFW National Home for Children is always remembered.

Since 1925 the VFW National Home for Children has provided Help, Hope and Honor for the children and families of our nation’s military and veterans. For more information please call (517) 663-1521, toll-free at (800) 424-8360 or visit www.vfwnationalhome.org
