

Mojave Cross Torn Down by Vandals!

Dear Friend of Liberty:

We have some terrible news to share.

In the dark of night on Sunday, May 9, 2010, vandals stole through 1.6 million acres of desert and tore down the seven-foot-tall Mojave Desert War Memorial Cross, which was bolted and welded down on top of Sunrise Rock.

This is an outrage, akin to desecrating people's graves!

It is a disgraceful attack on the selfless sacrifice of our veterans; and, we will not rest until this memorial is re-installed.

Help us put the Memorial back in its rightful place.

You helped Liberty Institute fight to save this 75-year-old monument from being torn down by the ACLU and activist judges.

Will you now help us re-install this precious memorial and bring these pathetic criminals to justice?

Liberty Institute is offering a $25,000 reward for information leading to the arrest and conviction of person(s) responsible for vandalizing VFW property by tearing down their memorial.

Anyone with information relating to this case can leave a message on the 24-hour National Park Service Tip Line at 760.252.6120. Callers can also choose to remain anonymous.

You can help in two ways.

First, you can help spread the news about this travesty, the reward and Tip Line.

Second, you can make a tax-deductible donation to help raise money to re-install the memorial and continue the legal battle to save the Mojave Desert War Memorial. \$5, \$10, 100, or more will help!

The U.S. Supreme Court sent our case back to the district court just days ago. This battle is not over. We will keep you informed, but need your help.

Please stand again with the veterans. Help spread the word and help them in this battle.

With gratitude,

Kelly Shackelford, Esq.
